

Letter of Introduction

On a separate sheet of paper, write a letter to me telling about yourself. Be sure to include today's date and an appropriate greeting.

Paragraph 1 (indent each paragraph)

What are you like as a student? How do you usually behave in class (be honest)? How would you describe your personality? How is it easiest to get along with you?

Paragraph 2

Describe your relationship with your phone. Which social media do you use the most? How much time would you say you spend per day on your phone? Do you think you are addicted? How do you use your phone at school? What is your expectation for phone use in this class?

Paragraph 3

Tell me about yourself as a reader. Do you like to read? What kind of books interest you? What books have you read during the past year? If you do not like to read, please explain why. When you read, do you comprehend better with music/background noise or with silence?

Paragraph 4

Describe your writing abilities. Do you consider yourself a good writer? What kinds of things do you like/dislike to write about? What are your strongest and weakest skills in English? In what specific areas would you like to improve?

Paragraph 4

Think back to the last few years in English class. Describe assignments or activities that you loved and those that you did not enjoy. What would you like to accomplish in this class (besides a passing grade)?

Paragraph 5

What are your interests/talents/skills/hobbies? What accomplishment are you most proud of in school or outside of school?

Paragraph 6

What can I do that will be most interesting and helpful to you? Is there any other advice you would like to provide? In there anything else you feel I should know about you?

After using an appropriate closing, sign your own name.
